Voluntary Markets - Good or Bad?

Carbon Registry driving a successful
Voluntary Market

What are all the “not so good things” about the Voluntary Market?

What are all the great things about the Voluntary Market?

Can we agree?

- The world needs the Voluntary Carbon Market to reduce carbon emissions?

...so what does the Voluntary Carbon market need?

- ◆ transparency
- ◆ credibility
- ◆ visibility of project origination
- ◆ confidence in what they are buying
- ◆ confidence in carbon credit handling processes (management->retirement)
- ◆ confidence of no double handling

HOW DOES THE MARKET ACHIEVE THIS?

The Role of a Carbon Registry: CARBON CREDIT LIFE CYCLE AND MARKET PLAYERS

A FINANCIAL MARKETS BASED CARBON REGISTRY:

- is integral to the carbon market;
- provides truth to sellers and buyers of credits by providing a record of the credit - from issuance, to transfer, to retirement; and
- records the life cycle of a credit.
